

Awareness

This concept adds a feature announcement banner to the existing app when the user is currently near a supported airport. Location services would need to be enabled for this to work but users are highly likely to have those services enabled already.

Awareness

The design tries to stay within the Door Dash design aesthetic while still calling attention to the new feature.