

CUSTOMER

Learn

Location-aware Notification

Select Flight

Place Order

View

Status

Food Delivery

Journey

I chose to use the flight number as the primary method for data capture because Airport, Gate # and departure time can all be derived and updated using just that single piece of information. If a flight is delayed or changes gates, the system will know about it, sparing the user from manually changing delivery locations.

Journey

Flight Details

I wanted to repurpose as much as I could from the address search and selection process from the default Door Dash experience.